

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, this Court should award Class Counsel a fee of no more than $3.2 million, and require Lifelock to pay the remaining $7 million to the class.

Dear Settlement Administrator,

I am writing to let you know that I feel $10,200,000 is far too much fee for any case. Class action suits that give a pittance to those who may have been wronged and a fortune to the attorneys are a serious flaw in the legal system.

Please do not give any service award and please set the attorneys' fees and expenses at a more reasonable amount.

Thank you for your consideration,

Re: Ebarle et al v. LifeLock, Inc.
Case No. : 3:15-cv-258-HSG
OBJECTIONS TO: THE CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT; AND THE REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES.

Dear Gentlepersons:

My name is Jennifer Hinojosa. I'm a class member. My name and address are set forth above.

As I understand this proposed settlement, there are 6.8 million class members, and a $68 million settlement fund secured by the FTC in an unrelated case in Arizona. On its face therefore it looks as if someone arbitrarily multiplied the number of class members by $10 to reach the settlement amount. I say arbitrarily because, at a minimum, LifeLock charges its customers $9.99 a month for its basic service. So, $10 is what a class member using Lifelock standard paid for one months service, plus a penny. Furthermore, since 6.8 million class members paid LifeLock at least $68 million a month, arithmetic shows that LifeLock made at least $896 million a year ripping off class members. And, since the notice says that the class-action deals with September 2010 to January 2016, reasonably you could multiply the $896 million times 5 and conclude that LifeLock's wrongful behavior resulted in the company receiving about 4 ½ billion dollars from class members. In which case $68 million represents about a penny and a half of each dollar of damages. Therefore I'd like the court to get some explanation from class counsel of why a penny and a half per dollar is an adequate settlement.

The Proposed Attorney Fee Award also appears to be unreasonable. I understand class counsel is requesting attorneys' fees and expenses of up to $10,200,000.00. I just don't understand why the class would possibly pay that much, since the money was secured by the FTC as part of an agreed contempt payment for LifeLock's violation of a 2010 district court order.

It seems unreasonable and excessive to pay the attorneys in this matter $10,200,000 for 12 months of work; considering that all the money is coming from the FTC case.

I am represented by Alan Sherwood, Esq. based in Hayward, California and referring counsel, N. Albert Bacharach, Jr. of Gainesville, Florida. Although I currently have no plan to attend the Fairness Hearing scheduled for June 23, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. in San Francisco, I would like to reserve the right to appear for myself and for my counsel.

Thank you for your attention to my concerns.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Hinojosa

Greetings to all parties involved. I received notification of this class action lawsuit via email. My wife and I have since been identified as a Subclass members.

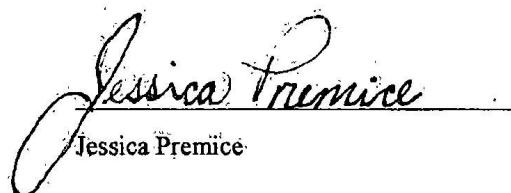

We are disappointed that LifeLock did not seem to deliver all of its promised services. Throughout our membership with LifeLock, we spent at least $176 for the services LifeLock promised us. It may have been more because my bank statements (see attached) show that I paid for a LifeLock "renewal." I covered myself as well as my wife (at the time girlfriend, Jessica Premice).

We are objecting this settlement. Though receiving $34-$39 would be better than receiving nothing, it does not compare to the minimum of $176 we paid. If a judge rules that LifeLock did not live up to their promises, then that severely damages the trust my wife and I had with them. It also will make us skeptical of other identity-protection organizations.

Please consider our objection as we are not represented by attorneys of our own. Feel free to contact us at any of the numbers listed above. Thank you.

Objections To the Class Action Settlement and the Request for Attorneys' Fees.
Filed by Email: Info@ebarleclasssettlement.com

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be informed that the undersigned, Jill Piazza and Stephen Piazza are class members residing at 495 Jordan Drive, Lumberton, TX 77657. Our phone numbers, respectively are (409) 781-2002 and (409) 782-1784.

We are writing to object to both the amount of the proposed settlement and the amount of the proposed attorney's fees. We have read the notice and cannot find any information about, how much money LifeLock wrongfully received from class members, including us during the time period covered by this class action. We can't determine whether the $68 million settlement fund is a reasonable amount to settle for; in that we don't know how much money LifeLock received from class members over the years. We assume that LifeLock received quite a bit of money from the 6.8 million class members over the years. We can't figure out what percentage of that money we are settling for, because we don't know how much money LifeLock received over time from the class members. If we were all duped by LifeLock, shouldn't we be getting all of the money back? Additionally, we understand that the FTC secured the $68 million that makes up the settlement fund. And we were curious as to whether our damages were capped by the FTC's acceptance of that amount or whether class counsel could have asked LifeLock for another $68 million or more?

In light of our concerns we don't think we should be paying $10,200,000 in attorney's fees. The online documents are all dated 2015. So we don't believe the lawyers could possibly have over $10 million in time invested in this case.

We think a $2,200,000 fee would be more appropriate than a $10,200,000 fee for class counsel.

My claim number is 6716AB9448 and I object to this settlement based on the grounds that the legal fees are exorbitant and thus depriving me of what should be my full settlement. I expect a detailed summary including names of individuals, times, dates for all all hours billed so that they can examined. I request that these also be mailed or emailed to each and every person covered under this class action suit so that they have the ability to examine the hours billed well. Please forward this to the opposing legal counsel and the court/Judge in this case. I would ask that the Judge in the case rule that everyone must receive copies of the detailed billing for legal fees and then give each and every person covered under this class action given ample time to examine these and determine whether the fees they've proposed are legitimate. These should be sent by registered mail to confirm that all members of this class action suit have received this critical material. Also, all class action members will need access to their counsel should they have any questions. Please confirm that you have done these things. You could also forward me the contact information to the Judge/court/defendant counsel. Thank you, John Rice

I object to the class settlement in the case Ebarle et al v. LifeLock, Inc., Case No. 3:15-CV-258-HSG. I am a class member, my name is Jonathan Gross and my telephone number is 713-806-7485. I am representing myself and I am not represented by counsel. I object to the settlement based on unreasonable attorney's fees, inadequate notice and conflict of interest.

Counsel is requesting "up to $10.2 million" in fees and expenses while giving no specific details as to the breakdown of those fees and expenses. The proposed settlement is $68 million according to the notice I was provided via email on February 18, 2016. Notice was insufficient under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 23(c)(2)(B). The notice must be "reasonably calculated under all circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections". In order to determine whether counsel fees are reasonable and are not excessive further disclosure as to the breakdown of those fees must be disclosed. Class members can file claims making them eligible for "up to $20" while counsel fees are requested up to $10.2 million. The information contained in the class action notice does not provide enough information to perform a lodestar calculation.
